Ethics

Welcome to Essential ETHICS for Global Leaders [19S1014] !

Most people are sensible about behaviour and attitude. The task of ethics is simply to rectify conduct. Parents, teachers, maybe all of us attempt to teach ethics, yet, ethics is something that can be learnt, rather than taught.

In this course we will survey a range of topics related to ethics as an essential driver for general, intellectual and scientific achievement. Together we will discuss ethically questionable behaviour, entertainment, consumption, research, business, laws etc., and learn from a variety of viewpoints. Lectures will be conducted in English and are open to all students concerned with what is «good» and «right».
